Field Trips Gail Domroski

Updated laws of the Southeast Volusia Audubon Society.

New members from Ottawa, Canada are Al and Diane Pascal. They noted that migrant birds leaving South this year are in big trouble amid the snow and cold.

Nineteen members attended this meeting.

Retiring President Don Picard after twenty-one years was presented with the Great Egret Award from National Audubon, a painting of a Skimmer and a $250 gift certificate.

Field trip organizer Gail Domroski announced trips: April 12 at Washington Oaks; April 18 at Canaveral Sea Shore.

Pot luck concluded the meeting on a perfect 82°F Florida evening. Even a plus of a rocket!
